Duty of Candour Report April 2024 – March 2025

All health and social care services in Scotland have a duty of candour. This is a legal requirement, which means that when things go wrong and mistakes happen, the people affected understand what has happened, receive an apology, and that organisations learn how to improve for the future. An important part of this duty is that we provide an annual report about the duty of candour in our service. This report describes how our care service has operated the duty of candour during the time between 1st April 2024 and 31st March 2025. In the last year, there have been no incidents to which the duty of candour applied.

I confirm as Head of the Establishment that the above information is true and correct.
